Hartford Weekly Herald

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26

C. H. Martin is the best watch repairer in Kentucky.

Look out for the big barbecue at Barretts Ferry, August 1st. 293

If you need anything in the way of clothing, call on the old reliable C. H. Martin.

A stage line, making two trips per week, is to be established between Hartford and Whiteside.

Supt. J. B. Rogers will deliver a lecture at the prayer meeting at the Baptist church next Thursday night.

If you want to get a good suit and sell it again, go to the men's store and see what you are owing him.

Bethel Carrolton is to have a fine Methodist church made from the ex-vestments she has now quarries stone.

Quarterly court began Monday with his Honor, Judge John P. Morton, on the bench. The docket is the largest the court has had for a long time.

A writ for an election, at the office of Justice of the Peace in the Cromwell District, was issued by the sheriff of Fayette County, on the 17th of June.

The Hartford String Band, composed of George Phillips, Marvin Bean and Cecil Sanders, will make music for the big barbecue at Harton, next Saturday.

Little Martin Agit met with quite a painful accident at Sulphur Springs last week, by being hit with the board of a swing, which fractured her collar bone.

The camp meeting which the colored people have been conducting at this place for several days, closed Sunday night with an able sermon from Rev. Harton of Louisville.

An old fashioned picnic will be given at McHenry, August 8th. It promises to be a most enjoyable affair. The committee consists of G. L. and W. R. Morris, Hart and Jas. Morris.

George Mayson of A. N. May, of Boston, was thrown from a mule last Wednesday and almost instantly killed. The full particulars of the affair will be given in our next issue.

The ice cream supper at the court house Friday night was well attended, and was a success, socially and financially. The string band was in attendance and discussed sweet strains of music.

W. S. Sterrett, the ex-journalist, will lecture at the courthouse to-morrow (Thursday) night with his humorous lectures entitled: "Sterrett's Troubles." All come and enjoy his interesting fun. Tickets 25c.

I have had an unexpected number of orders for pictures and will not be able to get away before the 17th of July, so will probably leave at that time. Those desiring pictures must come this week. C. Finney.

FOR THE TEACHERS.

Who Is The Most Popular School Teacher in Ohio? What Question to be Answered by the Herald.

The HERALD has long been popular with the teachers of the county, standing so it does, shoulder to shoulder with the moral and intellectual leaders of the people. Nearly every teacher in the county is on our subscription list and we desire to add the names of those who do not yet belong. We will send a list of the teachers, having connection with them in the schoolroom several years.

The ballot must be held, and to have them done, we will vote for a friendly rivalry in seeking to please their patrons, and we want their help and their good will. With that purpose we have determined to make a handsome present to the school system. Miss Maggie Dunbar is the girl of Miss Sophie Coeher.

Miss Irene Gotheer is visiting relatives in New England.

Prof. A. Brown, of the world at large, spent Monday in Hartland.

C. Hartwick, wife and children returned from New York.

J. T. Remmey and J. P. Avery, of Whiteside were in Hartland yesterday.

Little Milligan, Hartland, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hartland last week.

Herbert Sanders, who is working in Owenboro, visited his mother here last week.
